DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to applicant's amendment filed December 17, 2004. Claims 1 and 11 have been amended in this case. Claims 1-24 are pending in this case.

Response to Arguments

2. The 101 rejections in this case are withdrawn, given the amendments made to claims 1 and 11.
3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-24 and the art rejections thereon have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Davis et al (US 6,105,008).
6. Davis discloses systems and methods for the dissemination of information as well as secure transactions management and electronic rights protection over the Internet. (E.g. col 4 ln 1 – col 5 ln 55). Although not disclosed in the claimed, the specification in this case discloses the dissemination of information as well as the sale of products and services over a network such as the Internet.

7. Davis does not expressly disclose a method of disseminating information and selling products for pet death care. However, these differences are found only in the nonfunctional data. Thus, this descriptive material will not distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art in terms of patentability, see Cf. In re Gulack, 703 F.2d 1381, 1385, 217 USPQ 401,404 (Fed.Cir.1983); In re Lowry, 32 F.3d 1579, 32 USPQ2d 1031 (Fed.Cir.1994).

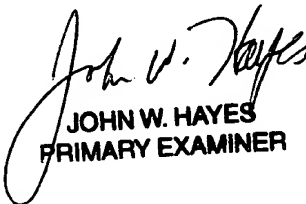

8. Examiner's note: Examiner has cited particular columns and fine numbers in the references as applied to the claims above for the convenience of the applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may be applied as well. It is respectfully requested from the applicant, in preparing the responses, to fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior art or disclosed by the examiner.
